Highlights

- This year was the first for a new setup of classes.
- Each student has four different classes every other day. Each class lasts for eighty-four minutes.
- The objectives are to give students the chance to take more electives, to give students class time for homework so they can get the teachers help, and to prepare students for the college class schedule.

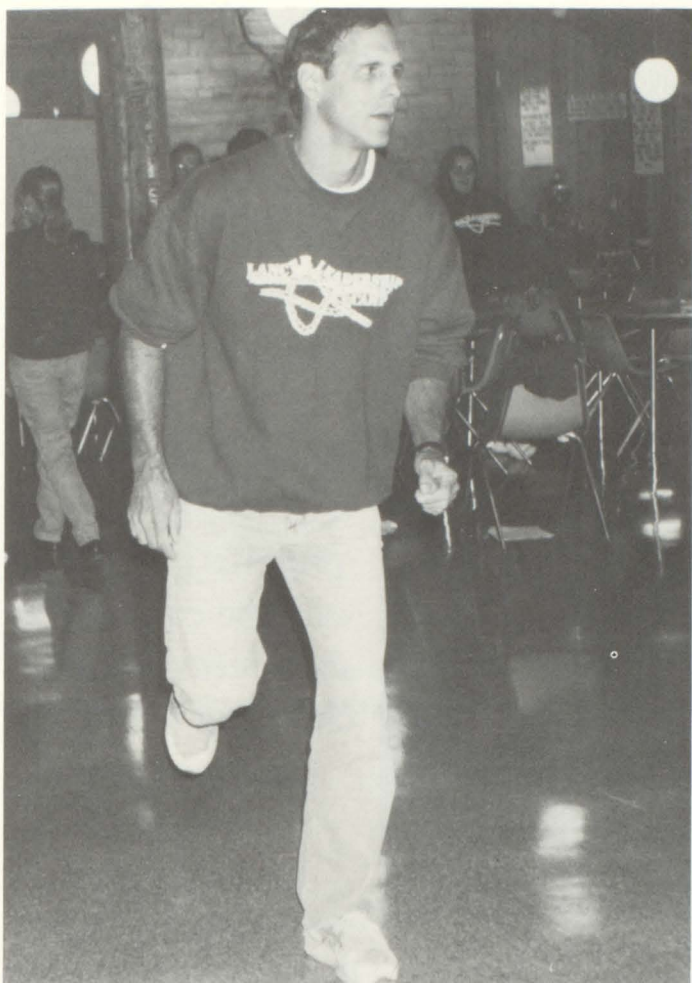

Corey Nebel, Bob Masters, and Dave Luder show their enthusiasm for the new eight block schedule.

“Four long naps instead of seven short ones.”

"We were the best of friends and thought that nothing could ever separate us. Now not having her in our lives makes us realize that only friendship can last forever. Through the memories we made and the times we shared, we know Laura will always be with us."

Kim Fish '96 and
Meghan Billups '96

On Thursday, November 10, 1994 Laura Walker died in an automobile accident on Highway 61.

Laura was involved in cheerleading, F.C.A., art club, and soccer. Laura also traveled to France in the school's trip during the summer of 1994. Laura was a lot like a flower child, with her bell bottoms and very own multi-colored painted car. Laura worked at Subway in Eldridge.

Services were held at Runge Mortuary in Davenport on Saturday, November 12. Memorial Service was held, for the students, at North Scott's "Pit". Reverend Dan Lorentzen officiated and the music was by the North Scott Music Department. A Memorial was created to benefit the North Scott School system. Pallbearers were Tom Brockhouse, Brent Decker, Derek Fleener, Mark Goodwin, Cory Hermann, Tony Rupe, Eric Varcho, and Craig Ward.

Thinking

If you think you are beaten, you are.

If you think you dare not, you don't.

If you'd like to win but you think you can't,

It's almost a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost.

For out of the world we find

Success begins with a person's will --

It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are;

You've got to think high to rise;

You've got to be sure of yourself before

You can ever win a prize.

Life's battle doesn't always go

To the stronger, faster woman or man.

But sooner or later the person who wins

Is the one who thinks they can.

It's Great To Be Neighbors!

1st Central State Bank Office Staff: Anne Nolan, Diane Hughes, Vicky Clark, Jennifer Hillman, Christopher Watkins, Joe Zrostlik.

1st Central State bank enjoys the opportunity to be an active member of the North Scott School District. We would like to "Thank" the North Scott school board, administrators, teachers, staff members, students, and parents for providing area youth with an excellent quality education. This investment is certain to provide future benefit and reward to both the students and the community.

Thanks

Thank you to all of the North Scott students, faculty, administration, and community members for supporting the creation of this volume of the Shield.

To the Shield staff, thank you for all of your cooperation and work throughout the year during B-6.

Thank you to all of our advertisers. The Shield doesn't receive any tax dollars, so the advertisers are some of the most important people to us.

The high school athletic department deserves a thank you for supplying team photos.

Thanks to John Mohr and Ed Schneckloth at Big Ed's Photography for sharing group pictures with us.

To any one that we may have over looked, we extend our gratitude.

Colophon

The 1995 Shield is Volume 37. This issue contains 176 pages printed by Taylor Publishing Company, Dallas, Texas represented by Vern Pennington.

Fulton Printers in Bettendorf printed the supplement.

690 copies were ordered by students, faculty, administration, and community members.

Senior portraits were supplied by Big Ed's Studio, Warner-Medlin Photography and Pontarelli Photography.

Underclassmen and faculty portraits supplied by Evans Photography, a LifeTouch Studio.

The cover is a Taylor stock design with a silver foil metalique stamp. The pages were printed on 80 pound enamel paper with a 20 board weight cover.

The main copy is Times 10 point. The page numbers are Zapf Chancery 15 points.

The books sold for $30 each, which included the supplement.

The yearbooks were distributed at the 5th annual Yearbook Signing Party during the last week in May.

Words from the Editor

This is my second year as Editor of the Shield. Many things changed this year with the layout and I had to go through a learning process all over again. I would like to thank the staff for getting their work done and in my hand on time. The book would not be the same without you.

Mr. Hennigan, thank you for your patience and guidance. You allowed me to make most of the decisions. I learned a lot about responsibility and deadlines because of it.

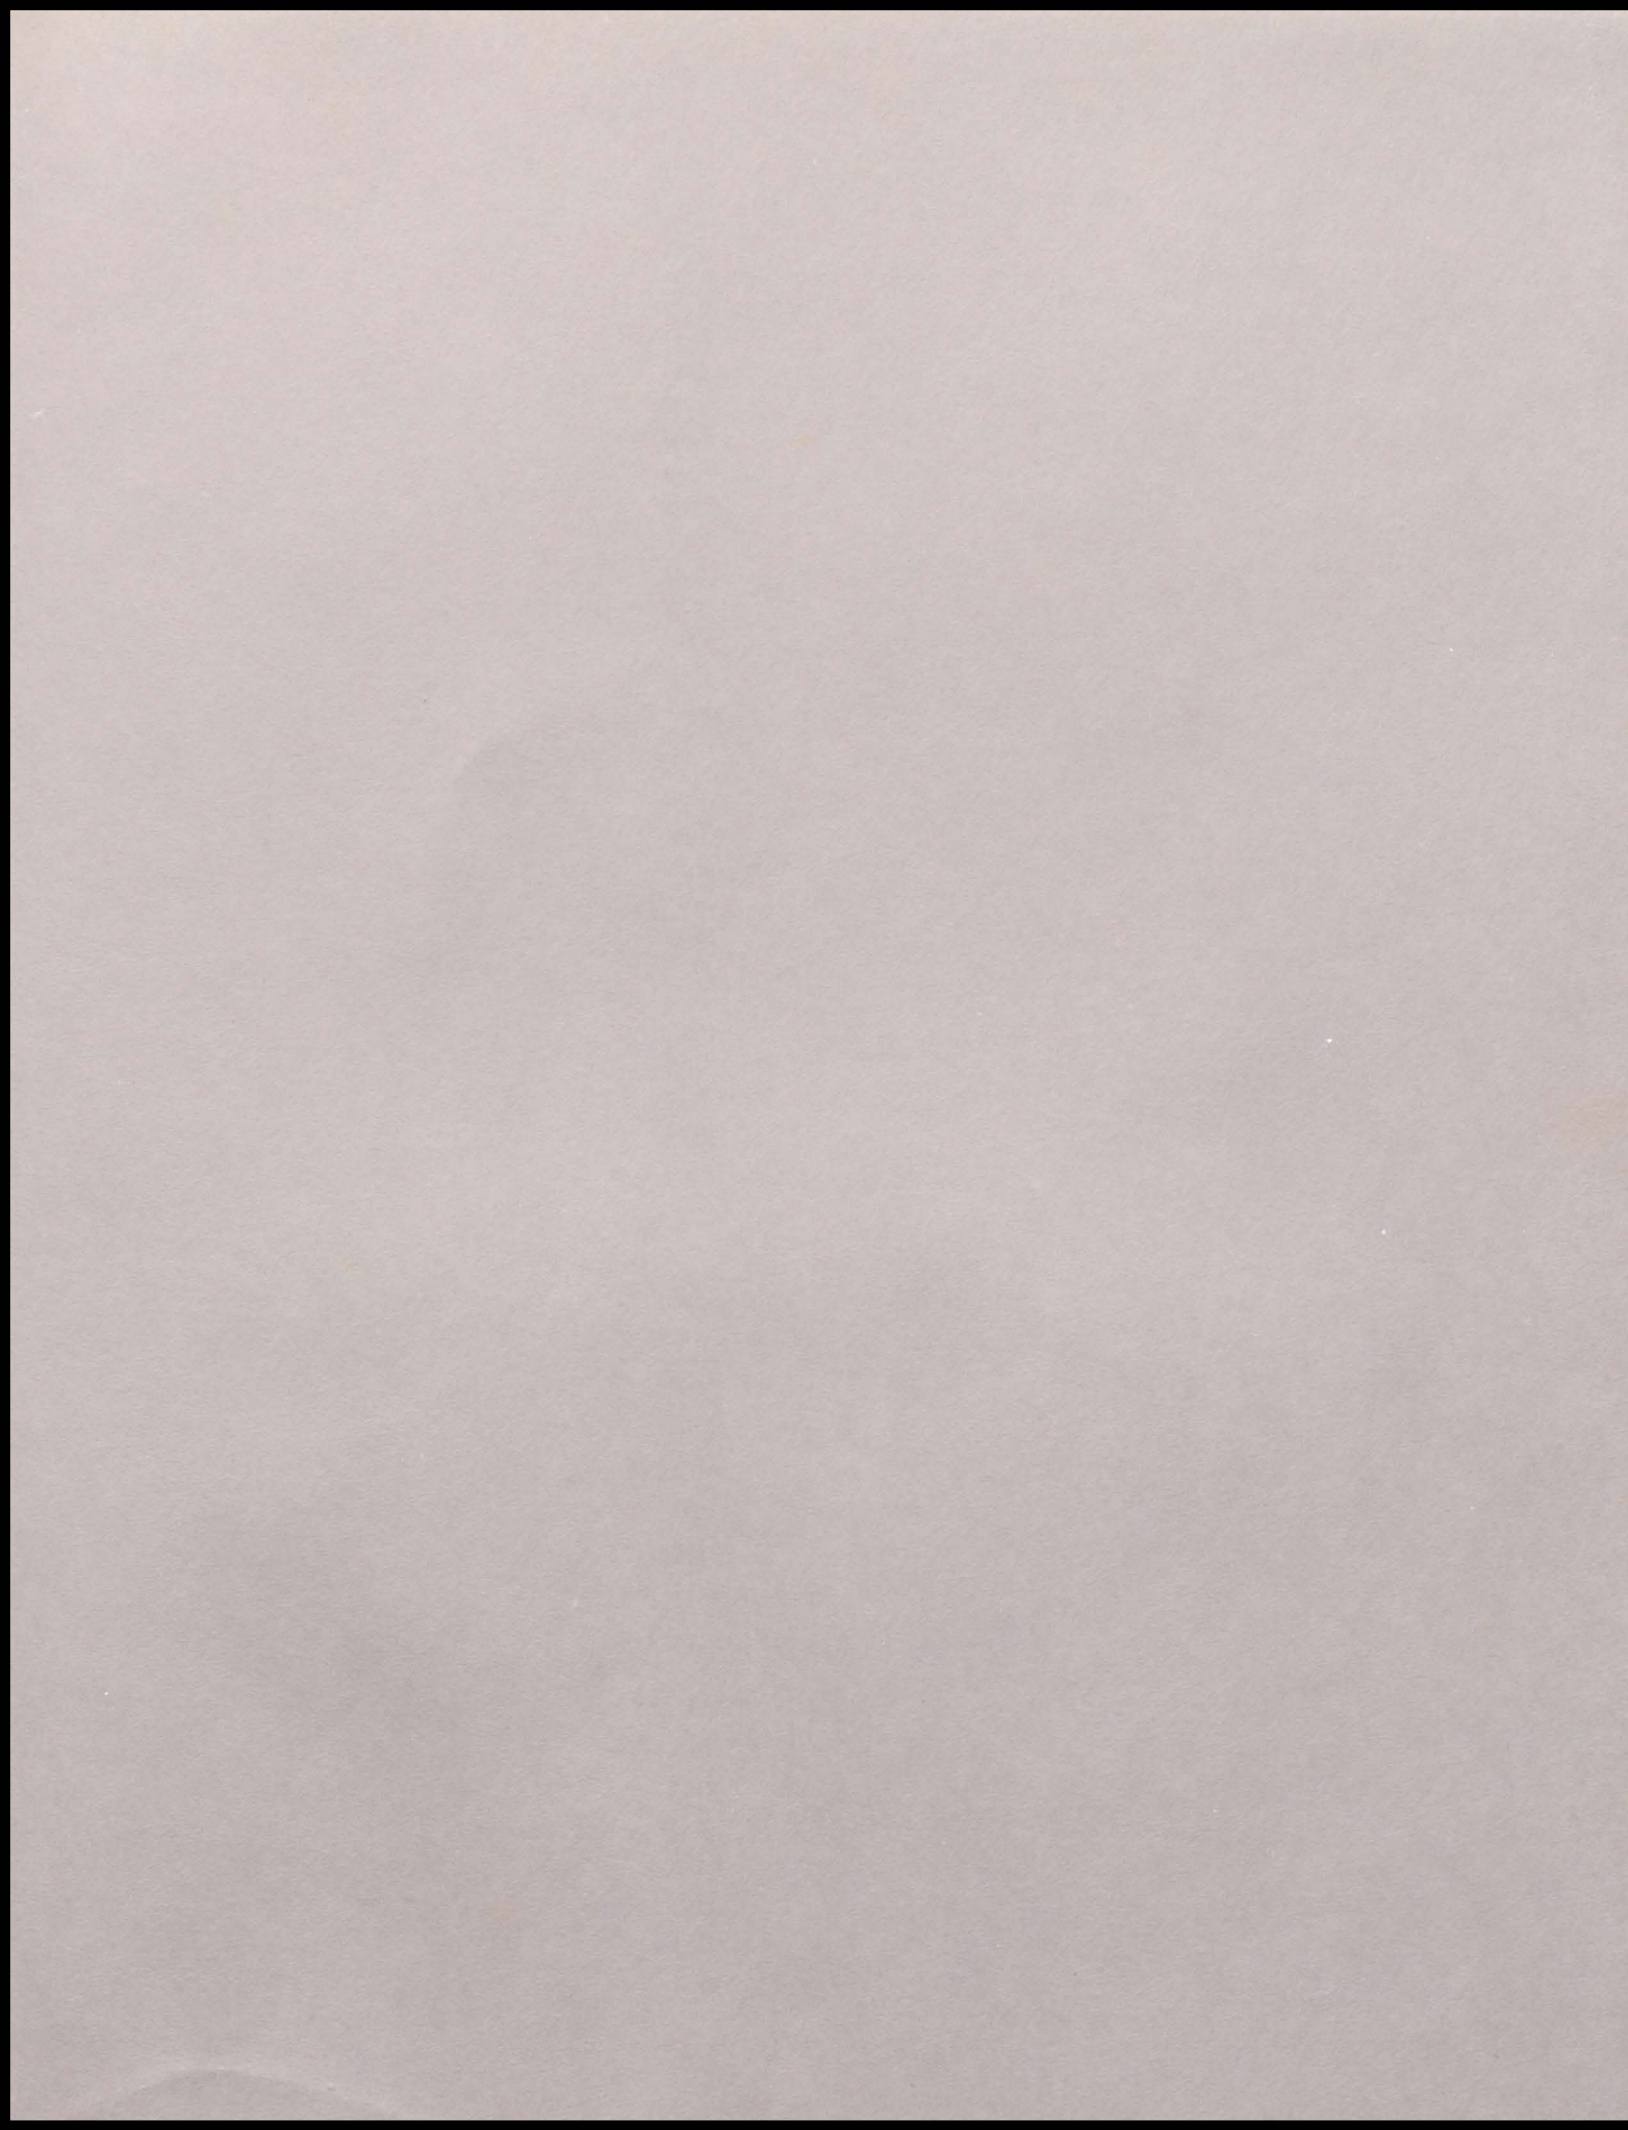

I hope that all of you, the new proud owner's of this yearbook, like everything that the staff and I did. We created it with you in mind.

Looking Ahead

What do underclassmen plan to accomplish before graduating from NS?

KARI SCHNEKLOTH, '98: Win the Hunger Drive two years in a row, and to be on the N.S. Dance Team.

MIKE SPRING, '96:

I would like to catch a home run ball at the new Commisky Park.

TIM GREEN, '96: Go to state in wrestling and track; and make the playoffs in football.

TRICIA HARTMAN, '97: Not to get in any more car accidents.

ABBIE HEINTZ, '97: I would love to make it through an entire day without seeing one of those awful Mossimo shirts that mess around with your eyes.

MICHAEL JEPSEN, '98: Make the B honor roll and start on the varsity basketball team.

ROBERT SPRINGSTEEN, '96: I plan to make my band a well-known local act in the Quad Cities and have a novel published.

AIMEE PONTIUS, '98: I plan to get all my credits, not get into any fights, and have a very interesting homeroom with Mr. Mohr.

SUSAN HULTQUIST, '97: I want to be on the B honor roll.

RYAN JENNINGS, '96: Get straight A's!

ADAM GANZER, '96: Qualify for state in wrestling.

GREG HUFFMAN, '98: To have the fastest car of this high school.

THAD WOOD, '96: I plan to take over the world with my power of holding space and time.

JASON PICOLET, '98: Win the state championship in baseball. Make the honor roll, and TP Derek Schnorrenberg.

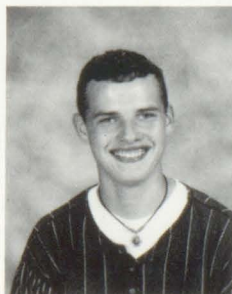

ERIK SCHROEDER, '96: Stay alive.

LANNETTE SHELDON, '96: Survive my senior year.

GREG NEWMAN, '97: Pass Algebra II, I hope.

BRYAN ARENSDORFF, '98: A honor roll all four years.

JUSTIN GERTH, '96: Win the most likely to be seen at a party award. And get some really cool tatoos.

AUDREY CHAN, '96: Climb Mount Everest and do back flips while doin' the Dew.

EILEEN BISHOP, '98: Try to finish school the best that I can for the next 3 years.

KELLY LASSITER, '96: Become a freeloading bum.

JOE OSTERBERG, '97: Win a soccer game.

BRANDON KANAKARES, '98: I plan on having fun and passing every class from now on.

Looking Back

What do seniors remember most about their 4 years at NS?

CURT BOURIL: Being a powder puff cheerleader for two years and watching the girls give 110% on the field.

CRAIG WARD: One time in the lunch room, I picked up my milk to shake it, but I forgot that I had opened it already, and my milk went everywhere. I don't think I ever saw Tom Brockhouse laugh so hard.

KAREN ZIMMER: All of the great times I've spent with my friends and the hilarious T.P. job at Natalie Goettsch's house.

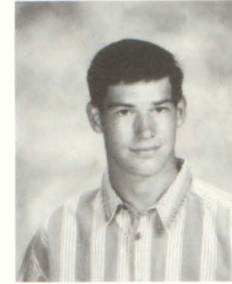

JEREMY FRIEDEN: Bending almost every rule in the book.

TARA ASH: Homecoming & missing most of my junior year.

JEANNIE WILLIS: When Laura Gross and Julie Swarts were killed. Also the Burnouts in the parking lot.

CHAD METCALF: Mine is a tie between wrestling all 4 years and girls, girls, girls.

TOM STAUFFER: When I had to chase after the bus in Des Moines at the Boys State Basketball Tournament.

KELLY MANGLES: Chats in home-room.

JODI STIPES: When Todd Marquette mooned Mrs. Menke.

KEVIN SUITER: The time Mitch & I were in my dorkie truck and we saw Hobie Stutt on some gravel road out in the middle of nowhere and we stopped and gave him a cool beverage.

JASON LAFFERTY: Channel 1 and school events like dances that people get kicked out of.

TERRY HAASE: Trip to Florida over spring break with Jay, Kris, and Luke.

AMY KERNAN: A wonderful experience mixed in with miserable days. Rumors, back-stabbing etc. Good stuff, fun stuff, dances-going stag. Public Speaking I, new friends. No one moment could be most remembered. I just remember a couple good friends, a guy who broke my little heart, moving around and lots and lots of fun rumors that didn't bring me down; they just made me stronger. Too bad for those who tried.

ANDREA LEE: When the boys basketball team went to State.

RYAN BARE: Dressing in leisure suits for B.C

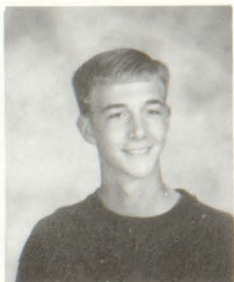

JEREMY SCHAACK: Watching Mr. Schrader turn North Scotts' football program in the right direction.

PAT BURKE: Remember What?

ZACH WATERS: Pro Stock burnouts at high school days and taking the championship trophy all the years I went.

SHAUN STRICKLAND: When someone spray painted Kurt Cobain & related Nirvana stuff in the parking lot my junior year.

CHARLIE CANNADAY: Breaking the losing streak in football.

JENNIFER PLASTER: When I moved away to another school and came to discover who my true friends are.

DEENA ENGELBRECHT: When Andy Bosworth wasn't looking where he was going in the parking lot and got hit by Clint Sager.

JANELLE WULF: Cultural cooking with Paula Schneckloth.
